

Once again, the Canadian Power and Sail Squadrons are offering FREE Recreational Vessel Courtesy Checks at ETOBICOKE YACHT CLUB.
Saturday, 6th August, 10:00 am to 4:00 pm.

This is a program sponsored by Transport Canada to help ensure that you and your family have an enjoyable and safe summer on the water. This program should be of special interest to those of you who are new to boating or who have recently taken delivery of a new boat. Trained Boating Safety Specialists will verify that you have all the required safety equipment (personal, fire, signaling, and navigational) on board your boat as well as the required documentation.

2022 Recreational Vessel Courtesy Check (RVCC)
Covid 19 Protocols

During RVCCs it is most important to recognize pandemic hazards, assess risks and minimize the risk of contact in order to help maintain the health and safety of all 2022 RVCC participants.

The following protocols are in place to protect yourself and others.

1.) All Provincial, regional and municipal Covid Health and Safety Regulations that are in effect at the time of any RVCC take precedence over any of the items listed by the following 2022 RVCC Covid protocols.

2.) Contact tracing is one method to help slow the spread of infectious diseases by recording the name and phone number of the people participating in a RVCC. Please use the designated registration form for your RVCC Contact Tracing Form.

3.) It is your personal responsibility is to take every precaution reasonable in the circumstance to protect yourself and others.

NOTE: There have been some recent changes to Transport Canada's Small Vessel Regulations that may affect you.

On Saturday, 6th August, 10:00 am to 4:00 pm, please meet us at the Clubhouse "Gazebo" area to register for this courtesy check. A team of RVCC Officers from Etobicoke Power and Sail Squadron will be at the sign-in location to greet boat owners.

If this time is not suitable for you, please contact your EYC Coordinator to arrange a different time.

Your EYC Coordinator is: John Warwick
